

Memory and Justice

2 (20) 2012

C O N T E N T S

Editorial (Zdzisław Zblewski)..... 9

I. Discussion

■ The selected problems of methodology and methodology
research on the latest Polish history..... 11

II. Essay

■ Károly Szerencsés, Belle époque? The seventies of the 20th century in Hungary..... 29

III. Studies

■ Krzysztof Brzechczyn, The issue of the reliability of “files” and the historical narrative based on them. Some methodological remarks.... 53
■ Piotr Witek, Historians and methodology..... 79
■ Agata Stolarz, Oral history in the workshop of historian mentality..... 103
■ Iwona Kościeszka, Sublime (in) history. The sublime as a tool and object of research..... 115

IV. Varia

■ Marta Bogacka, The camp years of Tadeusz Pietrzykowski –
the man who boxed for his life and won 139
■ Anna Wilk, Repatriation of the Lemkos from the Nowy Sącz Poviát to the Ukrainian Social Soviet Republic in the years 1945–1946..... 167
■ Marcin Żukowski, The methods of creating and phases of establishing of the Voivodeship Committee of the Polish United Workers’ Party (PZPR) in Gdansk from 1945 to 1949
(activists, structures, finances)..... 197

■ Tomasz Osiński, “Clique of Landowners”. Gentry in the personnel policies of State Land Properties (1946–1949).....	229
■ Bartłomiej Noszczak, Youth conspiracy – trial and error. Klub Wykolejeńców (1950–1951) in the light of the documentation of the secret political police of the PRL.....	261
■ Marcin Kruszyński, The “difficult” biographies of scientists from Lublin. The starting point for the biography of Aleksander Kierek	281
■ Łukasz Grabowski, Marcin Maruszak, Outline of structures, organisational hierarchy and the tasks of the Reconnaissance of the Border Defence Army (WOP) and the Border Traffic Control (KRG) in the years 1945–1991	303
■ Stanisław Koller, Normative principles for the disposal and destruction of the SB materials at the Ministry of Interior (1956–1990).....	331
■ Mirosław Sikora, The Security Service of the Ministry of Interior in the face of economic changes in Poland in the years 1980–1989. Article aimed at discussing research on the interference of Polish security services in PRL economy	359
■ Dominik Sokołowski, Radosław Żydonik, Story of one mistake. The inside context of the registration of the secret collaborator „Majewski”	411
■ Zbigniew Bereszyński, SB files do not lie, but they can be misleading. Conclusions from the analysis of documentation on the SB human intelligence sources.....	421
■ Henry Leide, Prosecution of national-socialist crimes in the German Democratic Republic (GDR) on the example of the activity of the Ministry for State Security. Case description.....	437
■ Grzegorz Rossoliński-Liebe, Celebration of fascism and war crimes in Edmonton. The political myth and the cult of Stepan Bandera in multicultural Canada	453

V. Documents

■ Paweł Madejski, Inscriptions and marks left by the persons held in the detention centres and prisons in Lublin in 1944–1953	479
---	-----

VI. Book reviews

■ Timothy Snyder, Bloodlands. Europe between Hitler and Stalin, New York 2010 (Alexander Gogun)	503
■ Janusz Królikowski, Generals and admirals of the Polish Army 1943–1990 (Mirosław Szumiło)	508
■ Slobodan Selinić, Jugoslovensko-Čehoslovački odnosi 1945–1955, Beograd 2010 (Mateusz Sokulski).....	512